

Qi Men Dun Jia Chart by D Twicken & A L Chan
Chart : Yin 1, Yang Wood.

Qi Men Dun Jia is one of the most treasured and advanced systems of Chinese Metaphysics. It is particularly useful to identify Auspicious and Inauspicious Directions and Times for a given date. Qi Men Dun Jia is a sophisticated method that perceives the energies of hours, days, months and years, integrating a variety of energy patterns including Yin-Yang, Five Phases, Luo Shu, Eight Directions, Chinese calendar, as well as Cosmic Imagery.

The recommendations in this chart are based on a variety of variables with safety as the primary concern. Based on knowledge you may have from other sources feel free to use these recommendations as only guidelines.

Qi Men Dun Jia information included in each chart:

1. Di Pan is the Earth plate and is the standard or original plate.
2. Tian Pan is the Heaven plate and is based on the Earth Plate.
3. Ba Men means Eight Gates, it refers to the Eight Directions for the Ba Men, which can be Auspicious or Inauspicious.
4. Ba Shen represents unknown influences, often referred to as the influences of Spirits.
5. Nine Stars represent the influences of Heaven or the Sky and has a strong influence on the environment. If they are auspicious use them. Auspicious Nine Stars make the situation even more auspicious.
6. Hour Killings, and Fu and Fan Yin charts are listed for the Earth-Heaven plates. The Eight Gates Charts include Fu and Fan Charts and Gong and Pi Men. Grave, Travelling Horse and Empty Palaces are listed for each chart.

The objective is to identify times and directions where all the Di, Tian, Ba Men, Ba Shen and Nine Stars are Auspicious.

The book, Introduction to Qi Men Dun Jia, is available explaining the details to this method, it can be purchased from my website: www.healingqi.com
